Speak Off Competition

Redlands, CA, June 3, 2008: Inland Empire Resource Conservation District (IERCD) held their annual Speak Off on May 27th, 2008 at the AK Smiley Library in Redlands. The Speak Off is a speech competition for high school students. The topic this year was : “The Resource Conservation District’s Role in Wildfire Recovery and Restoration.”

Students from Redlands High School and Bloomington High School competed in the District Speak Off. The first and second place winners were both from Redlands High School. First place was awarded to Jasdeep Sandhu. Second Place was awarded to Jessica Kaushal. Third place was awarded to Britney Peterson, from Bloomington High School. Each of them received a cash award of 50, 100, or 200 dollars.

Jasdeep Sandhu will go on to represent the IERCD in the California Association of Resource Conservation Districts State Speak Off competition, in November of 2008. The Speak Off is an annual event hosted by the IERCD. If you are interested in participating or would like more information, please contact Amy Bonczewski at 909-799-7407, extension 107.
